MICHAEL HAS PERFORMED FOR...

SERVICES

Formal Close-Up Show (15min – 1hr)

Gathered around the table, you'll witness masterful sleight-of-hand miracles just a few feet away. This show especially maintains that conversational atmosphere, keeping everyone laughing and bonding the entire time.

Designed for up to ~25 people, this is Michael's recommendation for house parties, after dinner entertainment, or office team-building.

Stage Show (15min – 50min)

This is the big show. The interactive experience for larger sized audiences featuring a mixture of magic, mentalism, and comedy.

This is a show that can play to a private backyard or a theater of hundreds.

SERVICES

Mingling Magic

Instead of a formal show, Michael will mingle among the guests, performing short close-up sets for groups at a time. Extremely conversational and fun, this is a great ice-breaker to get people talking and experience something unique.

Perfect for cocktail hours, offering ongoing entertainment for many guests, without a formal show format.

Why Not Both?

When the situation calls for mingling magic AND a show, Michael is happy to oblige. Warm the crowd up with some pre-dinner close-up, then close out the night with a show for everyone

This is a great option for banquets, galas, or holiday parties
